The screenshot shows a web form titled "Aaron Garland, Welcome to the Cook County Government Charitable Giving Campaign!". It includes a progress bar with steps: "Type and Amount", "Designation", "Professional", "Verification", and "Finalize". The current step is "Designation". The form asks the user to "Select your pledge type to continue" and offers a radio button for "Payroll Deduction". Below this, it states: "Payroll deductions will run from January – December 2022. For one-time donors, the deduction will be taken out of the first paycheck in January 2022." There are three input fields: "Deduction Per Pay:" with a value of "100", "Number Of Deductions To Make:" with a value of "26", and "Total Annual Pledge:" with a value of "2600.00". At the bottom, there is a radio button for "I do not wish to give at this time." and "Next" and "Cancel" buttons.

4. Choose how to Direct Your Gift

- Enter Designation Amount for the organization(s) you would like to support
- Once the entire amount is directed click Next

The screenshot shows the "Designation" step of the campaign form. It includes a progress bar with steps: "Type and Amount", "Designation", "Professional", "Verification", and "Finalize". A note states: "Note: Designations outside the United Way of Metro Chicago occur as it's processing the year. $250 per donation to cover the cost of agency setting and administering payments. Contributions to agencies occur 25-60 days after receipt of payment." Below this, it says: "Please enter the amounts for the designations of your choice." There is a summary table:

Total Impact:	$2600.00
Total to Specific Agencies:	$0.00
Total Pledge:	$2600.00

Below the table is a section titled "Community Partners" with a table of organizations and their designation amounts:
