The Ordinance directs the Chief of the Human Resources to issue rules. The Rules reflect procedures developed to comply with applicable federal, state and county laws and ordinances, the Judgment and Consent Decrees entered in Michael L. Shakman, et.al. v. The Democratic Organization of Cook County, et.al., No. 69 C 2145 on January 5, 1994 and other applicable statutes. In the event that provisions of these Rules vary from the terms of effective collective bargaining agreements, the terms of those agreements shall govern for affected members of the collective bargaining unit.

Please be advised that these Rules do not constitute a contract, and the language used in these Rules is not intended to create or to be construed as a contract or promise of continued employment. The Rules set forth general information and guidelines and do not purport to address every situation or contingency. Employees should direct questions about policies, programs or other applications of these Rules to the Bureau of Human Resources or other appropriate department. Employees should also be advised that the County Board has enacted Ordinances and that the President has promulgated Executive Orders from time to time and that they apply to all County employees. They appear in the Appendix to these rules and are hereby incorporated by reference. They include, without limitation, policies on Ethics, Human Rights, Domestic Violence, Drug-Free Workplace and Sexual Harassment. Employees should consult the Orders and Ordinances for their full text.

Please also be advised that the Ordinance empowers the County Board and the Chief of the Human Resources Bureau to enact amendments, revisions and changes to these Rules. The authority of the Chief of Human Resources to revise these Rules and promulgate new ones in accordance with the Human Resources Ordinance shall not be limited, circumscribed or otherwise affected by these Rules. Employees should consult the Rules from time to time to familiarize themselves with any revisions or additions to these Rules.

RULE 2
POSITION CLASSIFICATION AND COMPENSATION
(Revised September 30, 2016)

2.1 Scope

This rule applies to all County employees under the jurisdiction of the President.

2.2 Classifications

(a) Positions shall be classified in appropriate titles for purposes of administration. The Bureau of Human Resources (BHR) shall consider the resolutions of the Board of Commissioners, the provisions of law and all official acts for the duration of the classification.

(b) The BHR shall maintain standards of duties and requirements of all career service positions in a formal job description. The standards established by these rules shall be changed only by authority of the Chief of Human Resources or his/her designee. In the event that Federal or State funds are made available to any County Bureau or Department and as a prerequisite to receiving such funds, certain standards are required or prescribed by any Federal or State agency, such standards shall govern, unless in the opinion of the Chief of Human Resources, such standards shall not be in the best interests of the County, the career service, or the Bureau or Department involved.

(c) The classification plan may be amended in writing by the Chief of Human Resources. In determining the classification to which any position should be allocated, the requirements of each classification shall be considered in their entirety. Consideration shall be given to the general duties, specific tasks, responsibilities, qualifications desired and relation to other classifications.

(d) Requirements of classifications shall not be construed as limiting or modifying the power of any executive department head/designee to assign duties and to direct and control the work of employees under his/her supervision.

(e) Whenever the title used to designate any classification in the career service is to be changed, such proposed title change shall be submitted to the Chief of Human Resources. There shall be no title change without the prior written approval of the Chief of Human Resources.

(f) The BHR – Classification and Compensation division shall maintain a functional job description in writing of the duties and requisite qualifications for each position of employment in all departments and make each description available to the executive department heads.
(g) Upon the reclassification of a position from one classification to another classification, the method of determining the career service status of the incumbent or a candidate for the position shall be made in accordance with the provisions set forth herein. However, in the event of a reclassification of a position to a classification of a higher level, the Chief of Human Resources may grant the employee the same career service status in the new classification as the employee had in the former classification provided that the skills, responsibilities and qualifications of the new classification do not significantly differ or significantly exceed those required for the career service status (see definition in section 1.05) in the previous title. The BHR may, before recognizing status in the higher level, require such evidence of the qualifications and fitness of the employee and may conduct any hearing or investigation as it deems warranted.

2.3 Entry Rate

A new employee entering the County service shall be paid the minimum salary provided in the salary grade in which the job has been placed. Advanced step hiring shall only be done with the approval of the Chief of Human Resources only at the request of the applicable department head.

(b) No salary shall be raised as long as it exceeds the maximum salary of the salary grade in which the job has been placed.

(c) An employee whose salary is within the limits of the salary grade in which the position is placed, but does not correspond to one of the established steps of the salary grade, shall be eligible for an increase to the first established step above the present salary at the time of the employee's next anniversary.

2.6 Transfers or Changes of Positions

An employee transferring from one department to another in the same job classification and/or grade shall be eligible to receive the salary he or she has been receiving at the time of transfer, provided the budget of the department to which he or she has been transferred can accommodate the salary and, if not, the employee shall be eligible to have the salary received prior to the transfer restored at the earliest possible date. Such movements shall not set a new anniversary date.

2.7 Promotions – Union Pay Plans

An employee who is promoted to a job in a higher salary grade shall be entitled to placement in the step of the new salary grade which will provide a salary increase at least two steps above the salary received prior to the time the promotion is made, provided that:

(a) The new salary does not exceed the maximum established for the grade to which the employee is promoted.

(b) The new salary is not below the first step established for the grade to which the employee is promoted.

(c) Years of service requirements are fulfilled concerning longevity step placement. If years of service requirements are met, the employee would be placed at the appropriate step that provides a salary increase that complies with longevity requirements.

(d) A previous promotion has not been given within the same fiscal year.* (see note below)

(e) The budget of the department to which the employee is assigned can accommodate the salary.

(f) In all cases, an employee must spend at least 6 months in the job classification from which he or she is being promoted within the same agency or in Offices under the President.

* If an employee has been given a previous promotion within the same fiscal year, the employee shall be entitled to placement in the step of the new salary grade which will provide a salary increase at least one step above the salary received prior to the time the promotion is made. However, in all cases such salary will be in conformity with the provisions of (a), (b), (c), (e) and (f) above.
In all cases of promotion, the effective date will set a new anniversary date.

Promotions - Non-Union Pay Plans

An employee who is promoted to a job in a higher salary grade shall be entitled to placement in the step of the new salary grade which will provide a salary increase not to exceed five percent above the salary received prior to the time the promotion is made, provided that:

(a) The new salary does not exceed the maximum established for the grade to which the employee is promoted.

(b) The new salary is not below the first step established for the grade to which the employee is promoted.

(c) Years of service requirements are fulfilled concerning longevity step placement. If years of service requirements are met, the employee would be placed at the appropriate step that provides a salary increase that complies with longevity requirements.

(d) A previous promotion has not been given within the same fiscal year.* (see note below)

If the treatment requires leave to begin in less than 30 days, the employee shall provide such notice as is practicable.

5. A doctor's certification must be provided when an employee requests leave for his/her own serious health condition or that of family members as defined by the FMLA. The County reserves the right to require a second opinion at County expense and a third opinion, again at County expense, should the two opinions conflict.

6. During FMLA leave, the County will continue to pay its share of an employee’s health insurance premiums. Employees must arrange with the Benefits office to pay their share of premiums normally paid through payroll deduction. The County may recover the cost of paid health insurance premiums from employees who do not return to work at the end of such leave of absence in accordance with the provisions of the Act. Employees will not lose accrued benefits during this leave period, although no benefits will accrue during this period. Employees will be reinstated to the same position or equivalent position upon the return from such leave. The period of absence will be deducted in computing total continuous service and will effect a change in the anniversary and seniority dates.

7. Pursuant to the record keeping requirements of the FMLA, all FMLA-related requests, reports and certifications shall be forwarded to the Bureau of Human Resources for review and maintenance, except for those pertaining to employees of elected officials other than the President and the Bureau of Health Services.
