

COUNTY PROFILE

Cook County, Illinois is the Midwest’s cultural and economic center. Home to 5.2 million residents, it is the second most populous county in the United States while its County Seat, Chicago, is the third largest city in the United States, containing 2.7 million people, or 52% of the County populace. There are twelve other municipalities with populations over 55,000 in the County: Arlington Heights, Berwyn, Cicero, Des Plaines, Elgin, Evanston, Oak Lawn, Orland Park, Palatine, Schaumburg, Skokie, and Tinley Park.

An Act of the Illinois State Legislature created Cook County on January 15, 1831. They named the new county after Daniel Pope Cook, Illinois’ second congressman and first attorney general. The unincorporated Fort Dearborn settlement at the mouth of the Chicago River became the new county’s seat.

GEOGRAPHY

Cook County sits on the shores of Lake Michigan in the northeast of Illinois. The County comprises 945 square miles of land or 1.7% of Illinois. The City of Chicago accounts for approximately 24% of County land, the suburban municipalities 63%, and unincorporated areas under County Board jurisdiction the remaining 13%. Within Cook County there are 237 special-purpose governments, 132 municipalities, 160 school districts, and 30 townships.

Though the majority of the county is densely populated and urban, the Forest Preserve District protects over 69,000 acres of natural land or 11% of Cook County. Native prairies, woodlands, and waterways provide amenities for outdoor activities such as biking, birding, and hiking.

POPULATION

As of 2016, the population estimate for Cook County is 5,203,499 according to the United States Census Bureau, or an average of 5,504 people per square mile. The County is racially and ethnically diverse, with a growing Latino and Asian population. 25% of Cook County residents are foreign-born and almost all nations are represented among its residents.

African-Americans make up 24% of the population, Asians 7% and Whites 66%. The remainder self-identify as Two or More Races or as American Indian, Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian, or Other Pacific Islander (Other Race). 25% of residents identify as Hispanic or Latino of Any Race.

51% of Cook County residents are female. The median age is 35.3 with 22.3% of residents under 18 years of age and 13.6% are 65 years and over.

ECONOMY

The County is a diverse industrial center and a leading economic center of the Midwest. Income figures for the County exceed State and national rates according to the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis's data; the County's 2016 per capita personal income of $54,714 exceeded the State's $52,098.

Cook County comprises approximately 36% of Illinois economic activity with 2.36M jobs and $285B in annual output. Its industrial profile resembles that of the U.S. with a slightly larger services sector and somewhat smaller governmental presence. The County has a strong transportation network, with current expansion underway at both Chicago O'Hare International Airport and the Illinois Tollway. Seventeen Fortune 500 companies have their headquarters located in the County: Boeing, Archer Daniels Midland, United Continental Holdings, Exelon, R.R. Donnelley & Sons, LKQ, Old Republic International, Jones Lang LaSalle, Allstate, Sears Holdings Corporation, US Foods, Kraft Foods Group, Illinois Tool Works, Motorola Solutions, Conagra Brand, Anixter and Ingredion.

As of June 2017, the Cook County unemployment rate was 5.2%, 0.5% more than the State's unemployment rate of 4.7% and 0.9% more than the national unemployment rate of 4.3%.

GOVERNMENT

Cook County is governed by the County Board President and seventeen Board Commissioners who serve four year terms. Commissioners are elected from single member districts while the County Board President is elected by a general vote countywide.

Under the Illinois Constitution, the County is a home rule unit of government and, except as limited by State law, may exercise any power and perform any function relating to its government and affairs.

Cook County Board
President Toni

Preckwinkle was first elected on November 2, 2010 and took office on December 6, 2010. President Preckwinkle was re-elected for a second term on November 4, 2014. The President is the Chief Executive Officer of the County and presides over the meetings of the County Board. The President has the power to veto County Board resolutions and ordinances. The County Board requires a two-thirds vote to override a Presidential veto.

There are thirteen additional Cook County government offices. Ten of the offices have their own independently elected officers; the Assessor, the three commissioners of the Board of Review, the Chief Judge of the Circuit Court, the Clerk of the Circuit Court, the County Clerk, the Recorder of Deeds, the Sheriff, the State's Attorney, and the Treasurer. The Chairman of the Board of Election Commissioners is elected by and from the three commissioners and then appointed by the Circuit Court. The Governor of Illinois appoints the Public Administrator. The Committee on Finance of the Cook County Board consists of all members of the County Board. Commissioner John P. Daley is the Chairman of the Committee on Finance of the County Board.

The President is required to submit an Executive Budget to the Committee on Finance as the basis upon which the Annual Appropriation Bill is prepared and enacted. The President and the Board of Commissioners are accountable to Cook County residents for budgeting and controlling financial resources for all Cook County governmental offices and departments. The President and the Board of Commissioners apply guidelines, set goals, and use fiscal control for all Cook County offices and departments

PRINCIPLE FUNCTIONS OF COOK COUNTY

County Government has principal responsibility for the provision of public health services, the protection of persons and property, and the assessment of real property and the levy, extension and collection of property taxes. The County also has responsibility for maintaining County roads, economic development, and the provision of certain government services in unincorporated Cook County.

HEALTH CARE

Cook County is responsible for providing access to crucial public health care services to over five million residents, regardless of residents' ability to pay or citizenship status.

The Cook County Health and Hospitals Systems ("CCHHS") operates a health care delivery system composed of the following elements: John H. Stroger, Jr. Hospital of Cook County ("Stroger Hospital"), Provident Hospital of Cook County ("Provident Hospital"), Oak Forest Health Center of Cook County, the Ambulatory and Community Health Network of Cook County, Cermak Health Services of Cook County, the Ruth M. Rothstein CORE Center and the Cook County Department of Public Health.

In 2012, the Illinois Department of Healthcare and Family Services and CCHHS received a Section 1115 Medicaid waiver from the Federal Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services. Under the terms and conditions of the waiver and an associated demonstration period, County residents with income up to 133% of the Federal Poverty Level were eligible for Medicaid without being subject to an asset test. The demonstration population during the waiver period was eligible to receive health care benefits through CCHHS and community partners that CCHHS included in the provider network for the demonstration. This managed care initiative is commonly referred to as "CountyCare." Following the waiver demonstration period concluding July 2014, CountyCare became a “Managed Care Community Network,” expanding the eligible patient population to families, children, seniors and person with disabilities.

CCHHS offers a broad range of services from specialty and primary care to emergency, acute, outpatient, rehabilitative, long-term and preventative care. The health system plans to employ over 6,800 workers in 2018, making it one of the largest public health systems in the country. Operations and policy are governed by an independent board.

PUBLIC SAFETY

Cook County provides for the protection of persons and property through the provision of a court system, a jail system, a police force, prosecution, and public defense. The County operates the second largest unified court system in the United States, which hears civil, criminal, and administrative cases.

The Cook County Department of Corrections is one of the largest single-site pretrial detention facilities in the United States, and the Juvenile Temporary Detention Facility was the first and is the largest juvenile detention facility in the country.

The Cook County Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Management coordinates countywide emergency and disaster preparedness planning, and assists jurisdictions in recovery from a disaster.

The Sheriff Police conducts investigations, makes arrests, and provide other police services to unincorporated Cook County, as well as coordinates with municipal police forces throughout the County.

PROPERTY AND TAXATION

Cook County administers the second largest property taxation system in the United States. There are 1.8 million taxable parcels of land, with an annual collection of over 11 billion dollars. Tax funds are distributed to over 2,200 local government agencies including school districts, villages, cities, townships, parks and forest preserves, libraries, public health and safety agencies.

The County assesses one third of the region each year, rotating among the northern suburbs, the southern suburbs, and the City of Chicago. The value of each property is determined by a mass appraisal system rather than on an individual basis.

Taxpayers can appeal their assessments before the tax rate is calculated. Bills are sent to property owners twice per year.
