

OFFICE OF THE INDEPENDENT INSPECTOR GENERAL

WARNING OF RIGHTS AND DUTIES TO EMPLOYEE COMPULSORY INTERVIEW

This informs you of your rights and duties before we ask you any questions.

You are being asked to provide information as part of an investigation being conducted by the Cook County Office of the Independent Inspector General into alleged misconduct and/or improper performance of official duties. This investigation is being conducted pursuant to the Cook County Independent Inspector General’s Ordinance.

You are permitted to have union representation or legal counsel present while you are being questioned.

You have a duty as a government employee to answer all questions truthfully. If you refuse or fail to answer questions truthfully, you can be subject to discipline up to and including discharge.

Your answers and any information derived from them may be used against you in administrative disciplinary proceedings. However, your answers and any information or evidence derived from them cannot be used against you in any criminal proceedings.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I understand the warnings stated above, and I am willing to make a statement and answer questions.
